

For immediate release: Monday, June 25, 2007

Interim CEO named for Heartland Behavioral Healthcare

(Columbus) Sandra Stephenson, Director of the Ohio Department of Mental Health, today announced the appointment of Don Mobley as the Interim Chief Executive Officer of Heartland Behavioral Healthcare. Mobley will serve as CEO, effective June 26, while a search is conducted for a permanent CEO.

"Don brings a great deal of knowledge and administrative experience to this position and we appreciate his commitment to improving quality and providing excellent clinical services," said Director Stephenson. "I would also like to thank Heartland's executive leadership for assisting while we determined a viable interim solution during the search for a permanent CEO."

Mobley has more than 30 years of experience with the Ohio Department of Mental Health. He previously served as CEO of Appalachian Behavioral Healthcare and as Assistant Deputy Director of the Department's Integrated Behavioral Healthcare System. He has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Ohio University and a master's degree in business administration from the University of West Virginia.

Heartland Behavioral Healthcare provides inpatient psychiatric care and Community Support Network programs for 11 counties in north central Ohio.

###

For more information...

Contact the ODMH Office of Communications at 614-466-2297.